Policy Statement

A Responsible Person must be always physically in attendance that the Service is educating and caring for children.

Approved Providers are responsible for appointing a responsible person who is aged 18 years or older, has adequate knowledge and understanding of the provision of education and care to children, and can effectively supervise and manage an education and care service (ACECQA, 2017).

Purpose

Our Service is committed to meeting our duty of care obligations under the Education and Care Services National Law and National Regulations to ensure a responsible person is physically on the premises at all times to ensure the health, safety, wellbeing, learning, and development of all children at the service is maintained at all times.

Our Service adopts and aligns with the National Model Code and guidelines for taking images or videos of children. (See Safe Use of Digital Technologies and Online Environments Policy.)

Scope

This policy applies to Management, Approved Provider, Nominated Supervisor, Responsible Person, and educators of the Service.

Definitions of Responsible Person

Approved Provider	A person who holds a provider approval and has primary legal responsibility under the National Law and National Regulations to ensure good governance and management of the service.
Nominated Supervisor	A person with responsibility for the day-to-day management of an approved service. The nominated supervisor has a range of responsibilities under the Law and Regulations that govern the operation of education and care services.
Person in day-to-day charge (PIDTDC)	A person who is physically at the service and has the role of nominated supervisor or duly appointed person. The responsible person has consented to be placed in day-to-day charge of the service but does not take on the responsibilities of the nominated supervisor rather, they ensure the consistency and continuity in practices.

Implementation

Our Service will ensure a responsible person will be on the premises at all times, and the details of the responsible person will be clearly visible to families and visitors at the main entry of the Service.

A record of the responsible person will be documented each day via the Responsible Person Register.

If the responsible person leaves the premises, they will 'hand over' obligations for the role to another duly appointed person at the Service. It is vital that all handovers to a designated responsible person are documented when commencing this position throughout the day via the responsible person record. The process for determining the responsible person will be clear to all educators and staff, and procedures will be followed at all times. Both the outgoing and incoming responsible persons will ensure the displayed name of the current responsible person at the Service correctly reflects who presently holds the position.

Our Service will have one responsible person present at all times when caring for and educating children.

A responsible person can be:

- the approved provider or a person with management or control
- a nominated supervisor or
- a person in day-to-day charge of the service (PIDTDC)

The approved provider, management will ensure a responsible person:

- the regulatory authority is notified 7 days prior to a nominated supervisor starting at the Service or within 14 days after the person has commenced the role through NQA IT System
- the regulatory authority is notified if the nominated supervisor changes their name or contact details; is no longer employed by the Service, has been removed from the role or withdraws their nomination
- the regulatory authority is notified of the suspension or cancellation of a Working with Children Clearance or other disciplinary proceedings held against them under an education law of a participating jurisdiction action of a nominated supervisor
- responsible person will be removed from the position should management become aware of a matter or incident which affects the ability of the person to meet the minimum requirements of the position
- the staff register has the name of the responsible person at the Service for each time children are being educated and cared for by the Service
- a responsible person is on duty from the time the Service opens each day until the time the Service closes
- ensure that the identity of the responsible person on duty is displayed in the main entrance of the Service and is easily visible for families and visitors
- the PIDTDC interchanges with the nominated supervisor in their absence
- the individual's compliance history is taken into account prior to appointing the nominated supervisor or responsible person including compliance with:
 - the National Law
 - a former education and care services law
 - a children's services law
 - an education law
- they consider any decision under the National Law, or any other children's services or education law, to refuse, refuse to renew, suspend, or cancel a license, approval, registration, certification or other authorisation granted to the person prior to appointing a nominated supervisor
- documentation is recorded that demonstrates the individual's capacity to supervise and manage the service, this may include:
 - a Supervisor Certificate (including any conditions of the certificate),
 - resume detailing work history,
 - reference from previous employer, or
 - transcripts of courses or unit relating to staff management or administration of an education and care service
- responsible persons are aware that they have to sign off when they have finished their duty and will ensure the nominated supervisor or appointed responsible person (PIDTIC) will sign on and take on the role
- a staff record is kept recording
 - the full name, address and date of birth of the responsible person/nominated supervisor

- evidence of relevant qualifications
- if applicable, evidence that the responsible person/nominated supervisor is actively working towards that qualification
- evidence of any approved training (including first aid training and child protection training)
- verification of a Working with Children Check – identifying number and expiry date
- written consent for the position of responsible person
- all documentation and records relating to the responsible person and nominated supervisor are kept safe and secure for a period of 3 years following the employees last day of employment.

A nominated supervisor, appointed responsible person will:

- provide written consent to accept the role of responsible person/nominated supervisor
- sign their name and hours of responsibility on the Responsible Person Register
- ensure that the identity of the responsible person on duty is displayed in the main entrance of the Service and is easily visible for families and visitors
- inform management (approved provider/nominated supervisor) in a timely manner in the event of absence from the Service due to leave or illness so they can be replaced by another responsible person
- ensure they have a sound understanding of the role of responsible person
- abide by any conditions placed on the responsible person
- understand that a responsible person placed in day-to-day charge (PIDTIC) of the Service does not have the same responsibilities under the National Law as the nominated supervisor
- in the case of nominated supervisor, notify the regulatory authority within 7 days of any changes to their personal situation, including a change in mailing address, circumstances that affect their status as fit and proper (such as the suspension or cancellation of a Working with Children Check card or teacher registration), or if they are subject to disciplinary proceedings.
- notify management at the Service in writing, if they wish to withdraw their consent to be a responsible person
- responsible person appointments will be recorded on the staff roster, so all educators and staff are aware of who is appointed responsible person at all times the service is open
- the nominated supervisor will advise educators and staff the educators who have been appointed as a responsible person
